

ENGLISH WOMEN INAUGURATE GUERRILLA WARFARE

General Attack on Business Houses Called in Remarkable Declaration by Mrs. Pankhurst.

SHOPKEEPERS HASTEN TO BOARD UP WINDOWS

House of Commons Virtually in State of Siege as Suffrage Measure Comes to a Vote of Members.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] London, Jan. 27.—A declaration of guerrilla warfare by the suffragettes, including women and girls, to begin at once, was made by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant leader, at a meeting this evening.

Mrs. Pankhurst called for the names and addresses of those who were prepared to take part in the militant onslaught.

The suffrage leader declared that there were many women who were prepared to endanger their lives in the cause.

Mrs. Annie Kenney who has been very prominent in the movement of the militant, added that the women would make the lives of public men impossible and in reply to an inter-rogator said:

If you are a shop keeper you had better look out. It is not just your windows which are going to be attacked. It is something else. We are going to get this question settled once for all.

Many shops immediately began to board up their windows.

Premier Asquith repudiated the suggestion that the government had been guilty of sharp practice regarding the question of women's suffrage.

He declared the members of the cabinet had unanimously endorsed a decision from the house on women's suffrage.

The government he continued had not planned itself to give to a woman's suffrage bill introduced at a private meeting next session, the same facilities as it had given the corresponding government measure.

Although members of the cabinet were to vote in accordance with their individual predilections.

Those suffragettes who had been admitted into the outer lobby of the commons and those in the vicinity of the house, took the refuge of their bodies were safely escorted by lines of police as to proceed and possibly to the women's meeting at the same time.

After the government decision had become known Mrs. Pankhurst stated that the women would not accept of a moment the suggestion of a private member's bill. She added:

Unless we are told that we are to have a government measure, giving equal voting rights to men and women, at that the suffragette struggle will never have resigned, our duty is immediately to resume militant.

HOUSE OF COMMONS IN STATE OF SIEGE

London, Jan. 27.—The British cabinet today decided to drop the franchise bill. This decision was in defiance of the speakers' ruling that the bill and amendments of the measure would be so immediately offered by the government, granting the vote to women, that it would be presented in the shape of a new bill.

The products of the house of commons presented many of the features of a well defined amendment when the house met this afternoon in bringing to a conclusion the current chapter of the work for the enfranchisement of the cabinet would not produce the discussion under the circumstances but would drop the bill. The government, he added, would at its own time and within the lifetime of the present parliament proceed with bills dealing with electoral reform and plural voting.

DARROW JURY WILL BE COMPLETED TONIGHT

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Las Vegas, Jan. 27.—The selection of Clarence S. Darrow as a charge of jury bribery was resumed today, with good prospects for the completion of the jury before night.

Two pieces remained to be filed in the jury box, although it was almost certain that the defense would exercise its right to excuse John Farley, the well known jurist, in return of a peremptory challenge and create another vacancy.

The state has three unused peremptory challenges and the defense five.

Done, Mr. Asquith announced that the cabinet would not produce the discussion under the circumstances but would drop the bill. The government, he added, would at its own time and within the lifetime of the present parliament proceed with bills dealing with electoral reform and plural voting.

At the opening of today's session Premier Asquith asked the speaker to state again in more definite form that if any of the women's amendments were carried, the franchise bill would become substantially a new bill and would have to be withdrawn. This

QUEZON DENIES THE FILIPINOS ARE PREPARING FOR WAR

Commissioner for Islands Tells House of Representatives That Natives Trust American People.

HINTS AT SINISTER MOTIVE IN WAR RUMORS

Declares Islanders Rely Implicitly on Pledge of Incoming Democratic Administration for Independence.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Washington, Jan. 27.—Manuel L. Quezon, the Philippine commissioner in the house, made a speech today denying reports that Aguinaldo and other native leaders were forming a revolution.

Quezon discussed reports published today of a battle between American troops and Moro natives in which several troops were killed.

"In view of this report," he declared, "I am sure that the American people and the Philippine people are not preparing for war. This is not true. For the last two months, since the Democrats won at the polls, those reports have come from the Philippines regularly, because the Democrats are pledged to give the Philippines their independence."

"These encounters between Moro and American troops have heretofore been accidental when it was in some way interested to control them and they are not given out when it is to somebody's interest to give them out."

"The Filipinos are not preparing for war. They have faith in the American people and they expect their liberty at the hands of the American people. Especially they will not fight since the Democratic party pledged to Philippine independence."

Mr. Quezon pledged the fighting strength of the Filipinos to the United States. "I can ever get into a war in the east."

He also stated that the Filipinos are not preparing for war. They have faith in the American people and they expect their liberty at the hands of the American people. Especially they will not fight since the Democratic party pledged to Philippine independence.

BILLS TO REGULATE LIQUOR TRAFFIC PROMINENT ON CALENDAR

Local Option Bill Requiring Special Election Is Special Order in House of Representatives at Santa Fe.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON WOMAN-MEMBER BILL

Amendments to State Constitution, if Adopted By People, Will Mean Radical Change in State and County

THREE COMMISSIONERS TO GOVERN COUNTIES

Governor and Lieutenant Governor Only State Officers to Be Elected, Provided in Bill Introduced Today.

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald.] Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 27.—(Both legislative houses were late in getting down to business today owing to the late arrival of members who spent the week end at their homes in the country.) This is the act of the legislature and providing for regulation of or prohibition of the liquor traffic by counties, cities, towns and villages. It provides the holding of a local option election upon petition of twenty per cent of the legal voters of any county. The house by a vote of 21 to 27 refused to table an amendment by Mr. Mallock which raises the petition requirement to 25 per cent of the voters and makes the bill apply to cities, towns and municipalities instead of counties.

In the senate the entire session was devoted to the introduction of bills. Mr. Page introduced senate bill No. 60 to provide for the salaries and expenses of the state treasurer. Other bills were: No. 41 by Mr. Austin, fixing times for holding court in the several counties of the state; No. 62, Amador, the various state institutions. This would require the appointment of a woman on the board of regents of the university. The Agricultural college, the polytechnic school, and the marine academy. Messrs. Ryan and Phillips in the house introduced a resolution on the death of the late Colonel Lamo which was adopted by unanimous vote.

The house committee on judiciary decided to favorably report the bill regarding the appointment of a woman on the board of regents of the university. This would require the appointment of a woman on the board of regents of the university. The Agricultural college, the polytechnic school, and the marine academy. Messrs. Ryan and Phillips in the house introduced a resolution on the death of the late Colonel Lamo which was adopted by unanimous vote.

WICKERSHAM GETS A ROASTING BY FEDERAL JUDGE IN TEXAS

United States Judge Meek Declares He Cannot Understand Attitude of Attorney General.

ORDERS NEW WARRANTS FOR STANDARD OIL CHIEFS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Dallas, Texas, Jan. 27.—Attorney General Wickersham was criticized today by United States Judge Meek, who said it was a new thing for the executive department of the federal government to intervene between a court and men who had been indicted, as it did in the case of J. D. Arnold, H. C. Foster, Jr., and W. C. Teague. They were indicted in Judge Meek's court on charges of violating the Sherman anti-trust law in an alleged conspiracy affecting the Magnolia Petroleum company.

Mr. Wickersham did not order the arrest of the men on the Texas warrants, because, he said, the evidence did not uphold such action.

When the case was called in Judge Meek's court today to comment on Mr. Wickersham's attitude, he said he could not understand it, although he had full confidence in the integrity of the executive department. Judge Meek ordered new warrants issued for the three.
